

DATE, MEETING PLACE & TIME	TITLE of EVENT	BRIEF DESCRIPTION	INFORMATION
19 August 2pm - 3pm St Anne's Church, Strandhill	The Life of Col. Wood-Martin	Commemorating the life and contribution to Sligo Heritage of Col. W. G. Wood-Martin who died in 1917. Aideen Ireland in her talk will delve into the many aspects of this local and important man. Aideen Ireland's talk in St Anne's Church, the burial place of Col. William Gregory Wood-Martin, (1847-1917) will recall his life and significant involvement in Sligo's heritage, in this, the year of the centenary of his death. Contact Paul Allen For More Details 0857531918 SFCHonSec@thevoid.plus.com	Not suitable for Children under 12 Wheelchair Access (Full) Car Parking Available
21 August, 6pm - 8pm Carney Village	Coillte Woods Lissadell Outing	See the Feirste, Ó Dálaigh's bi-valate ring fort, a possibly moated site, as well as the medieval church of Inney-Arbkilliney. In the woods, spot native Irish mammals including red squirrels. Leo Leydon will lead this outing to visit Coillte Woods, and talk about the various sites such as the Feirste, Ó Dálaigh's bi-valate ring fort, a possibly moated site, as well as the medieval church of Inney-Arbkilliney. Whilst in the woods, an opportunity to spot native Irish mammals including red squirrels. Appropriate footwear required. Contact Leo Leydon For More Details 0868099891 leoleydon100@gmail.com	Suitable for Children under 12 No Wheelchair Access Car Parking Available
22 August Meet 9.45am Water Works Fox Den Tonaphubble, Sligo.	Organised visit to CARNS on Cairns Hill Sligo	Carraroe and District Regeneration Association as part of National Heritage Week have organised a visit to the CARNs on Cairns Hill Sligo on Tuesday 22 August 2017 meeting at 9.45 am. People interested should meet at the Water Works Fox Den Tonaphubble Sligo. The trip will be led by Mr Stefan Bergh Author and international authority on the CARNs of Co Sligo. People should wear good walking boots or wellies as terrain is uneven and may be wet depending on weather – contact number for the trip is 0872222835. This is a Carraroe Development Committee event Contact Pat Benson For More Details 0872222835 patbenson1@eircom.net	Rough Terrain Wellingtons/Boots are advised
24 August, 6:30pm - 8:30pm Mills Fall Housing Estate Collooney	Collooney's Industrial Past	This event traces the impact of nature on the development of Collooney's Industrial past, it's mills, using the waterfalls on both sides of the Owenmore River. Wendy Lyons, President of the Sligo Field Club will guide participants through the impact of nature on Collooney's Industrial development (its mills) in the past. A fascinating insight into the growth of one aspect of Sligo's industrial advancement along the River Owenmore. Contact Paul Allen For More Details 0857531918 SFCHonSec@thevoid.plus.com	Suitable for Children under 12 Wheelchair Access (Partial) Car Parking Available
27 August, 2pm - 5pm Kilross Cemetery, Ballygawley .	Megalithic & Medieval Kilross	Tour of Kilross area taking in many of its megalithic and historic sites including Castledargan, Knocktober's ringed enclosure, Carricknagat's megalithic tombs complex and discover their purpose and history. From the ruins of Kilross church, Pat O'Brien takes us to the Ormsby family vault Castledargan and some interesting graves. A portal tomb, barrow and ringed enclosure in Knocktober townland follows. A short drive to megalithic tombs at Carricknagat, Ballintogher, learning about recent industrial food production: rotary querns, a mill-stone and the relics of a horse-driven churn. Time allowing a visit to a well-preserved court tomb at Carrownagh, Ballintogher. Strong shoes to be worn. Car-pooling possible. Contact Paul Allen For More Details 0857531918 SFCHonSec@thevoid.plus.com	Suitable for Children under 12 No Wheelchair Access Car Parking Available